

Sinclair
Broadcasting is abusing their
privilege to use the public airways in
the public interest
by its decision to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary right
before the presidential election. If this decision is allowed
to stand then they
should be required
to at least show a
pro-Kerry
documentary, like
Going Up River.

This is an excellent example of how
increased media
consolidation can lead to abuse that actually undermines
our democracy!
